

GAY TWINKS

What is twink? Twink is actually a term used to describe a young eye-catching people. But in gay jargon, it is described as a gorgeous babyish-looking gay man (usually in his early twenties) in their sexy, slender build body. Previously, the term gay twink is used exclusively for the blondes but as time goes by, this term becomes popular among young men who go along with the physical description above even though they are not blondes. Gay twink is not necessary doll-eyed sissy guys but rather on the contrary, they are real men that exude toughness, sturdiness and confidence. In fact, a lot of gays do not dig sissy guys. Generally gay twink is gay guys who fall into the good looking metrosexual gays category. However, gay twink like general gays men can be further classified into among others, top, bottom, versatile/flexible, sissy, straight acting, muscle mary, femme and last but not least, stud.

Walking down the park hand-in-hand, buying men-paraphernalia to spice up tonight pumping actions, or simply just lie down in each other's arm chewing off the last remaining pizza together. Gay twink is no different than straight couples and they certainly do what couples do – from a passionate sex to rock climbing sans the shirt next. Gay twink often dig gay twink. This category usually belongs to a few types of gays. Either it is their sole preference of their partner(s)', or they are fresh graduates of gays who believe in finding their love at first sight and live happily ever after with another young handsome partner. There are also young gay twink who are inclined towards older men. One type can be seen as 'money-boy'. Whoever is their partner is immaterial as long as their lives are comfortable enough and the money flow is good – and often than not they are far better than just good. Another type are those who are considerably weak in making decision in life and thus needed someone to provide emotional support or simply love the sense of security from older men.

In view of the above, young couples cannot afford to have all the luxuries in life due to the limited financial input, hence, life is not easy on them. All the romantic dinners and comfortable holidays are only for rare occasions or none at all. Indulgence of sexual activity is probably the best thing to show their affections to one another. Their counterparts on the other hand, the money-boys are the best life enjoyers. Being showered with luxuries in life, they party like no tomorrow each day. What they have to do is to keep the big guns happy and the money will come rolling.

If being a baby boy does not fancy you, hot looking gay twink could do very well on their own. If you are young, good looking and gay, can you make money for being just that? The answer is yes. Super hot, model-like gay twink do not only enjoy the attention given by another fellow gay, but also faired better in the gay industry. If George Lucas is famous for his film revolving around Jedi Knights poking with luminous sticks of various colours, then Michael Lucas is the equivalent adult erotic gay video award winning director. From gay traveling to gay marriages, from gay outdoor hiking to proms, emergence of wide arrays of products/services coupled with widening acceptance of gay community propels the industry into a promising future for twinks to appear in vast array of advertising for gay products, night clubs, escort services, and sexual aids. With such a massive lot of demand, any hot blooded gay twinks could be the next top gay icon. Don't be surprise to find yourself twinkling away in the next issue of 'JustUsBoys' magazine if you are willing.

Yes a hot twink have a look and a body that not only gay guys yearn for but also the desire of any sensible men. Maintaining assets like this, require fair amount of commitment in terms of time, money and effort that the opposite sex would gladly part with to keep they figures. Some gay twinks work out like he's going to be a Hercules banging away into the night with 100 equivalent hunks. Some don on some make up to look more attractive. Some shave away their hair simply to make their dick look a little cuter or perhaps lesser friction during sex.

Not many gays can be classified as gay twinks (if they don't meet the young sexy body of course). Gay twinks have the advantages of hanging around with people and they are hot especially in gathering for gay such as gay sex party – usually organized by youngsters. If you are clean cut, attractive, young, little or hairless slender body, with a cute sexy face and a gay secretion sensation, chances are you are one of the smooth boyz. Like any popularity game of pre-teens and teenagers, gay men especially younger ones aging 25 years old and below, do surreptitiously yearn to be twinks for they get higher amount of attention be it from fellow twinks, younger gays or older gay men. A not-so-good-looking straight guy getting a hot girl is hard. A gay guy getting another gay twink to go for a gay prom is even harder. Is there even such thing as gay prom to begin with? Alas, though there are gay proms, such events do not share the same light as conventional prom due to its nature. How can twinks let their hard down with people giving them the glances whenever two men in spanking tuxedo holding hands and dance? Nevertheless, being a gay twink means they enjoy the center of attraction is the sense that every gay men want a piece of them. They get date more easily. In short, they are more popular that other gay men want to be like them and would gladly die for them so to speak. On prom nights, there might be 'appetizers' along the way where you can see gay twinks making out in dark hallways or all juiced up in doggy style in some tight corners behind the curtains but needless to say, all gay men look forward to the end of the prom because that is when the actual fun begins. Amid pounding music and alcohol, party goers are high, rocking and dirty dancing with their partner or partners. Gay twinks are reduced to their masculine-scented skin and are licking away the natural concoction of seventh heaven oozing and spurting out oh so cataclysmically. Some can be seen doing three-some with amazing positions and dexterity that would do justice to kamasutra. Corners, bedrooms, verandah, couch, floor – every inch of the place are not spared of such intense orgy be it group-sex or just a couple sharing an intimate moment. And of course whenever such orgasmic actions are rolling, handphones and cameras are whipped out to record these passionate gay twinks that would win them the most erotic gay award. This is usually how sex videos and pictures from the gay sex party leaked out onto the Internet that further sucks (pardon the pun) in more gays to join the party. You can most certainly see gay men busy themselves with sucking cock and having anal sex with each other like they have never did before. As mentioned, this is the party where everything goes.

Twinks love gay porns. They might have hundreds of photos and phone numbers to set the Olympics record but have you wonder where they started out? One of the challenges being a gay is finding another gay guy. It is not one of the days where you just walk into a bar or gym, muster every ounce of confidence and approach the hottie for a conversation and hope that you will be lucky tonight. How do you spot a gay? How do you know that stud looking dude across the table is a gay twink - unless of course you hit the gay bar, it is not easy for any first timer. Due to social stigma, most twinks started out in the wonder of the Internet that provides the blanket to remain anonymity under a fake identity. Jake could be their nicknames. "I love clean-shaved dick up my ass" he confesses to another gay twink who probably might be in his late 60s or early 15 while ogling at 8 inchers of a real twink picture he found in the boyride.com. Then he proceeds to put a brave front of meeting another gay guy he hope to turn out to be the guy he imagined while jerking of in the shower. Then he encounters his first bottom and top experience. Then he promiscuously change partners, having group-sex, and even organizing a gay orgy himself. His name is now Thomas C. Cassidy and he is using his name for real. That could be the story behind every twinks and the Internet could be their best toy of all toys.

Speaking of which, do gay men have so much trouble staying faithful that they are labeled promiscuous? Although many gays do stick to one partner, on average they tend to be far more promiscuous than straights especially gay twinks being hormonally charged at such young age. Two gay men sharing an apartment may not view responsibilities like straight couples do. After all men cannot multiply the way women do. When the physical attachment that bonds a couple is lacking, gay men could succumb to the notion of no-string attached relationship. Primal motivation with little likelihood of genuine care and love amongst gay twinks could be the only element that is keeping two men together. When sexual boredom sets in, lusts for somebody else follows suit. Such as the case of twinks described above, there are majority of gays who yearn for manly men but unfortunately there are too far and few in between. Effeminate gay boys could be putting up a macho front that works excellent in bars but in reality few gay twinks can keep up the hunky act after they start living together for some time. Flowers and I-luv-U cards are like putting wet wood to keep the flame burning. It might burn but with such difficulties that smokes of doubts fill the room and choke the relationship to death. Thus the ecstasy is gone quicker for gay couples especially hot twinks who are more prone to being courted away. Old ones die and new ones started. These gay twink will go to the gay sex party for the free sex. Who would not want to go to some gay sex party for some free explosive sex that is better than any drugs in the world? It is even better if you can have some free sex with a lot of different gay twinks all night long. And the best thing for most of these people is to just have some great sex with the people that they do not know and have no obligations for each other the next day they wake up. For some gay men it might be a fantasy or dream come true. At times, these gay dudes go to these gay sex parties just to find a companion even though it is a sex party organized for people to have free sex. We all know it is not easy for a gay man to come out of the closet, maybe a gay sex party is the perfect way to help the gay man to come to terms with himself. With reality in check, eliminating stereotyping and discrimination on gays are nothing but a long winding road. The world seems unforgiving and society left no place for them. Why is this? After all, gays are also human with feelings, passion and have every right to be with the person of their choice. Perhaps of all these unfavourable dealings toward gays, a little sexual pleasure that gays find amongst each other is most comforting. Well, is it good enough a reason for you to go hot with a gay twink right now?
